OLDEST PAPER IN WESTERN KENTUCKY

HICKMAN, FULTON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, AUGUST 3, 1911.

SOME RAIN MUST FALL.

"Into some lives some rain must fall"—
O'er all land, storms and sorrows meet;
But, when the rain and storms are gone,
God sends the sunshine warm and sweet—
And every "strait" will find a road;
In every grief we find a song.
We must learn to bear and learn to wait,
And "some how or other" we'll get along.

We've loved each other fond and true,
And murmured not at what befel;
Three darling babes have crowned our joys,
All are living and doing well,
We will bear our burdens, my dear,
While we are healthy, young and strong.
Again I repeat the same refrain—
"Some how or other we get along."

We will hail our cares with a pleasant laugh,
And take care of ourselves with tender pride;
We will keep an account of life's pleasures too,
Which will balance up with the other side.
We will never forget the sun
That "behind the clouds is shining,"
And know this—this much in life,
"There is no good in repining."

Claude Magness and Miss Eunice Jones, of Oakton, were married in the county clerk's office last Wednesday, Esq. H. S. Sacra officiating.—Union City Commercial.

Bobby Leach, 49 years old, of Niagara Falls, Ont., yesterday afternoon went over the Horse Shoe Falls in a barrel and still lives. Though he was severely battered and bruised in the drop of 158 feet over the brink of the cataract, he sustained only superficial injuries and is able to be about his home. This is the second time the cataract has been successfully navigated. Mrs. Anna Edson Taylor, made the trip in a barrel Oct. 24, 1901, and came out alive.

"Will you let me go back there? I never was in a printing store," said a gentleman Monday. We told the old fellow to help himself, and gazed upon him enviously. We have often wished that we had never seen inside of one. But there's some sort of a fascination about the darned business that you can't shake off, with all of its vexations a multifarious mixup, which have sent so many men to the bug-house, the booze-house, and sometimes to the poor-house.

Heyburn of Idaho is on a committee to investigate the election of a fellow-senator. Meanwhile, an inquest de lunatico inquirendo should be instituted as to the people who sent Heyburn there.

We are glad to learn that G. B. Bond formerly of this city, is able to be up again after undergoing an operation for appendicitis at the Presbyterian Hospital at Memphis. The operation was performed July 22nd.

Col. Henry A. Tyler and his son, Robert Tyler, of Hickman, drove over to Clinton yesterday in their car and spent a part of the afternoon. Col. Tyler, who was recently in Mississippi, located the grave of Robert Spillman who was killed at the side of Col. Tyler during the war of the '60s. He came here to see Mrs. M. E. Watson about having the grave suitably marked with a stone. Mr. Spillman was Mrs. Watson's first husband. Col. Tyler never forgets his "boys" living or dead, and his life is almost wholly devoted to keeping alive the memories of those days that tried men's souls. The Gazette was honored with a visit from the distinguished old Confederate leader.—Clinton Gazette.

A gentleman well acquainted with the corn crop in Fulton county, gave it as his opinion Thursday, that if the remainder of the season should not be unfavorable, the corn, this year, will average about 70 per cent. of a full crop.

Editor Brice has this to say of Capt. W. A. Shuck, of Jordan: "Capt Shuck the famous Confederate Cavalry man who followed Gen. Forrest in all his fierce and desperate forays and is still stouter than 9 out of every 10 young men of 25, was here Wednesday."

Mr. Geo. L. White, one of Union City's splendid citizens, has moved back to his farm near Cayce temporarily. Mr. White is personally directing work on the farm. The gentleman is one of the successful Fulton County farmers, and is now able to keep a town house, one of the prettiest homes in the city.—Union City Commercial.

The plans for the new steamer Aquitania, which the Cunard Company is building at Clyde Bank, have been modified to make the vessel the largest in the world. Her length will exceed 900 feet and be ten feet greater than the length of the 50,000-ton liner, Imperator, which the Hamburg-American will put into service in the spring of 1913.

The river bank at Bird's Point has been caving for the past two weeks owing to the low water in the Ohio River causing the water in the Mississippi to flow faster. The caving this week is great or greater than ever before and unless the government puts in revetment work many hundreds of acres of Mississippi county soil will yet fall into the river.

After twelve long years of floundering about without rudder or compass the old Democratic ship of Kentucky is to be supplied with these needful equipments, without which it has so often stranded upon the rocks. A platform convention is to be held in Louisville August 15, delegates to be chosen in mass convention at the county seats on August 12.

We haven't heard of the appearance and ravages of the cotton crops in the Southern States this year, by the boll-weevil, but the boll worm which is as destructive has bobbed up down there. So far the Fulton county cotton fields haven't been infested with any kind of pests and if the killing frost does not come too early a good crop will be picked.

George C. Avery, one of the oldest and best business men of Louisville, died in France. He was the manufacturer of the famous Avery plows, an implement that we all have met on the field of battle in the spring-time, and we all remember the admonition printed on the beam—"Keep All Taps Screwed Up," which by the way is a good motto for a man as well as for a cast plow.

The KITCHEN CABINET

All common things, each day's events
That with the hour begin and end,
Our pleasures and our discontents,
Are rounds by which we may ascend.

Stews and Stewing.

A cheap cut of meat for stewing may be made most palatable by careful cooking. Wipe the meat with a damp cloth to remove any bits of bone, then cut in small pieces and pour over them boiling water to cover. If the meat is now allowed to boil it will become tough and tasteless, but by allowing to simmer slowly for several hours it will be tender and good flavor.

English Stew.—Take one and one-half pounds of mutton cut from the forequarter. Cut up in inch cubes and place in a stew pan with a turnip and an onion sliced. Cover with water and cook slowly for three hours. Season with salt and pepper, thicken the gravy with flour and serve with boiled potatoes.

An Irish stew is similar with the addition of carrot and celery to the dish.

Meats and Their Accompaniments.

Serve horseradish with roast beef. Apple sauce with roast pork. Tomato or mushroom sauce with roast veal.

Current jelly with roast mutton. Mint sauce with roast lamb. Cranberry sauce with roast turkey. Oyster sauce with boiled turkey. Gooseberry sauce with fresh mackerel.

Spiced sauce with roast goose. Spiced grape jelly with venison. Sliced oranges with French dressing with roast duck.

Bread sauce with mutton. When meats are brought from the market they should be removed at once from the wrapping paper and put on plates in a cold place.

Poor man's turkey is pork chops seasoned with salt, pepper and sage, then roll in crumbs and bake with sliced potatoes 45 minutes.

Jambalaya.

Cut remnants of cold fowl in small bits, add a small slice of ham, likewise chopped, toss in a hot pan with a little butter until slightly brown, then add a cup of rice and a pint of broth. Cover closely and simmer until the rice is tender.

Swayne Walker spent Sunday with home folks.

A great battle which is to determine the fate of American and Canadian reciprocity is before the House of Commons, which convened last week. Ask for Receiver.

St. Louis, Aug. 1.—A receiver has been asked for the American Bankers' Assurance company, whose offices in the Commonwealth Trust company were placed in charge of a watchman by Thomas B. Killeen, a deputy in Sheriff Nolte's office.

The Federal Union Trust company and the Rubey Trust company are named as co-defendants in the receivership suit, which was filed by A. J. Hawkins, Oscar W. Curry, and W. B. Pearson. John S. Leahy and Walter H. Saunders are attorneys for the plaintiffs.

A fight for control of the stock of the American Bankers' Assurance company and the Commonwealth Trust company from maintaining a sign on windows of the Commonwealth Trust company or from acting as agents of the Federal company.

BANKER KILLED BY AUTO

Machine Traveling 35 Miles an Hour Leaves Road and Plunges Into Ditch.

Hardin, Ill., Aug. 1.—Alois Bullier, assistant cashier of the Bank of Hardin, was fatally injured when an automobile in which he and two companions were riding, plunged from the road and turned turtle into a ditch. Bullier was pinned under the machine, and received injuries from which he died. Both companions were severely injured.

The men were motoring between Nepin and Brussels in Calhoun county, of which Hardin is the seat. According to Jose Schmerder and Dr. Fladd, the other occupants of the machine, they were driving about 35 miles an hour, when the car swerved, and before it could be righted, plunged to one side of the road.

Bullier was placed in a farm wagon and carried to his home in Hardin. He is survived by a wife and small daughter. Bullier was 39 years old.

MAY SHIFT DIPLOMATS

Changes by Wholesale Are Expected in Diplomatic Circles of U. S. Service.

Washington, Aug. 1.—A wholesale shifting in the United States diplomatic service, incident to filling the vacancy in the Berlin embassy, was taken up at the White House and the state department.

John G. A. Leishman, ambassador to Italy, and Thomas J. O'Brien, now at Tokio, are at the head of the list of eligibles named by state gossip to succeed Ambassador David Jayne Hill at Berlin. Charles H. Sherrill, minister to Argentina, is named as a possible successor for the post at Rome. The offices at Brussels, Rio Janeiro, The Hague, Havana and Bucharest probably will be included in the shift, it is said.

Dog Tramps Home in 60 Days.

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 1.—John Kirkland's dog has returned afoot to Dubois county, Ill., from Tennessee. Kirkland removed last April and shortly after he reached his new home Towser disappeared. A Dubois county farmer, passing the old Kirkland homestead saw the dog on the steps of the deserted home. It is believed the dog was on the road nearly two months.

CORPORATIONS PAY IT ALL

WISCONSIN'S TAX ON CORPORATE BODIES RUNS STATE.

Income From This Source About 71 Per Cent, Herbert Knox Smith Reports to Taft.

Washington, Aug. 1.—Wisconsin, of all the Eastern Central States, derives enough revenue from its taxes on corporations to pay its ordinary state expenses. About 71 per cent of the state's taxes come from that source. Ohio collects 52 per cent of its total from corporations; Indiana, 19 per cent, and Illinois, 34 per cent. In Michigan the revenue from corporations, which is 45 per cent of the tax receipts, is applied to the school fund.

A comprehensive review of the taxation of corporations in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin is presented in a report of Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations, transmitted to the president. Reports on corporation taxation in New England and the Middle Atlantic States have been published.

The report says Illinois and Indiana levy practically no special taxes on corporations; that Wisconsin alone approaches a separation of the sources of revenue, and that Michigan and Wisconsin make an elaborate physical valuation of steam and street railways on a system quite different from that used by any of the other states.

The findings of the commissioner afford a concise comparison of the tax laws of the states, in the light of judicial decisions, practical administration and revenue returns.

SACRED WRITINGS FOUND

Uncanonical Gospel Discovered by Egyptian Explorers—Material for 20 Books.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 1.—A new uncanonical Gospel of Christ, containing many utterances of Jesus, which are unknown to the world, is believed to have been discovered through the work of the Egyptian exploration fund, according to an official announcement issued from the Boston headquarters of the fund. Enough ancient writings have been dug up to furnish material for twenty large printed volumes.

Prof. Bernard P. Grenfell and Prof. Arthur S. Hunt are at present engaged in the work of translating the mass of uncovered papyrus. Prof. Whittemore went to Egypt several months ago on the strength of subscriptions made by wealthy Bostonians and others. He succeeded in completing the work of opening and recovering the long hidden treasures from one of the mounds through special permission of the khedive.

Tobacco Co. Organized.

The latest business venture in Hickman has been launched under the name of The Kentucky Farmers Tobacco Company. As its name indicates, the new concern deals in that necessary evil—tobacco—but in a different form from anything that is now on the market.

This company has been incorporated with an authorized capital of $250,000, and is privileged to "cultivate, manufacture, buy and sell" tobacco. Officers are C. P. Shumate, president, B. G. Hale, Jr., Secretary and Treasurer.

Ordinarily the tobacco business is beset with many hazards when undertaken by small companies, but the simplicity of this new company's plan makes it a safe proposition for the reason that their stock will consist at all times of tobacco in the natural leaf which has an actual cash value. The plans of the company are best explained by a letter of announcement which has reached our desk, and is in part as follows:

"TOBACCONATURE, and with this word, we beg to take this opportunity to announce to you the organization of THE KENTUCKY FARMERS TOBACCO COMPANY.

"Its chief business will be the distribution to the customer of 'hands' of tobacco in the natural or unadulterated condition.

"The underlying principle of its plan is founded on the fact that there is a certain grade or strength and flavor of tobacco in its natural, unadulterated state, which will exactly suit every user—in other words, the adulteration of the article, as is practiced by almost every manufacturer at the present time, is not only a positive detriment to the good taste and flavor which nature has given tobacco, but this adulteration is the prime cause of the present bad effects experienced by almost every user at the present time.

"This is a 'back to nature' crusade and with this pronouncement of intent, we beg to enlist your good wishes and hearty approval. This is the establishment of a local enterprise, and, we flatter ourselves than on that account your individual record or reputation for local patriotism, would justify us in assuming that you are 'with us,' and for this we thank you in advance, etc."

C. P. Shumate, cashier of the Peoples Bank, is the originator of this new concern and the ideas upon which it is founded, emanated from his thought factory. Whether he stumbled on the fact that there is a demand for natural leaf tobacco or just simply dug it out by mental labor, cuts no ice; the fact remains that tobacco in its natural state is always in demand, but no one has ever thought of a plan to handle it in that way before.

In short, it will be put up in handsome cartons, which will preserve its natural flavor and carry it to the consumer in popular priced packages. The tobacco will also be put up in the different grade.

As a matter of local importance, the new company will be a benefit to Hickman. They must have warehouses, employ labor in grading and packing, and, lastly, will, we presume, use more or less of that grade of tobacco which is raised in Fulton county.

Taken as a whole, the outlook for the new concern is certainly rosy. The simplicity of the plan, the safety of investment and the eternal demand for such a product is an index of success.

The company expects to be in active operation about the first of the coming year.

Spainards Not Guilty.

The statement made by Gen. Wm. H. Bixby, chief of engineers of the United States army, that the loss of the battleship Maine was caused by the explosion of its three magazines, and that no such effect as that produced upon the vessel could have been caused by an explosion from the outside, must come as something of a cold bath to such of our friends as had already learned that we gained nothing by the Spanish war that we could not have gained without it, and who have now to learn the additional disappointing lesson that the conviction which was the final procuring cause of the war, viz., that the Spaniards exploded the vessel, is probably not justified by the facts.

By delaying for so many years to raise the Maine we have been dishonoring the unfortunate soldiers who went down with her; but the delay has, we suppose, been largely due to the fear that just what would be discovered which has been discovered. We had always rather not be convinced of the truth of a disagreeable suspicion.

It is to the credit of the lamented McKinley that in heart and judgment he deprecated the Spanish war, and we can only wish that the exercise of the vast influence properly pertaining to the executive office he had stemmed the current of uncalculating jingoism and saved us the national humiliation which finds its culmination in the discovery commented upon by Gen. Bixby.

The time to find out what sunk the Maine was before we set about punishing the Spaniards for having been the perpetrators—not a dozen years later.

Word About Trustees.

Trustees are elected for rural schools the first Saturday in August. One-half of the schools elect trustees each year. There is one trustee for each sub-district and their term of office is two years. Each colored school district a colored visitor. Only colored voters can vote for colored visitor. Both white and colored voters vote for white trustee.

There are four educational divisions in Fulton county. The white trustees of each division constitute the division board, whose duty it is to elect the teachers and look after the educational needs of the division. Each division board elects a chairman and secretary.

The chairmen of the several division boards together with the county superintendent constitute the County Board of Education.

Dates Conflict.

A serious problem has confronted the members of the Fulton County Teachers' Association, which is due to meet in Hickman on August 28th and continue one week.

The Fulton County Fair is to have their annual meeting on Aug. 29-30-31 Sept. 1-2, and the meeting of the teachers in Hickman on the same dates will keep the members of that body from attending the fair.

Quite a number of the teachers are greatly interested in the fair and a few of the ladies are at the heads of the various departments, and it is going to inconvenience them greatly if the teachers' meeting cannot be postponed for some time later than the first dates mentioned.—Fulton Leader.

Miss Luten, county superintendent, has been apprised of this fact, but says the date cannot well be changed. It was set by the former superintendent, Miss Dora Smith.

Ky. State Notes.

Frankfort.—The cylinder head of big engine in penite 'lary blew out, but no one was seriously hurt. The cylinder head shattered itself against the stone foundation of the boiler for the other engine, and did no damage to the building. It will take several days to repair the damage, but the auxiliary engines will probably be able to keep the machinery in all the shops going till the repairs are completed.

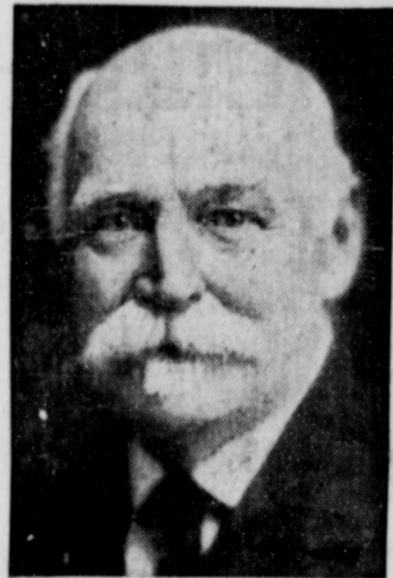

One of the convicts who worked about the engine room was in the room at the time of the explosion and breathed some of the escaping steam. For a time it was thought that he was seriously affected by it, but he revived in a few minutes.

New Military Company.

The new Frankfort military company was formally mustered in by Major C. W. Longmire, with a full complement of men. A. G. Hodges, Jr., who has served as first sergeant in the regular army, was elected captain and his experience should make him one of the best equipped captains in the state guard. Jas. M. Pulliam was elected first lieutenant and John Wright second lieutenant.

Licking, Too, Will Be Improved.

The committee of Newport citizens, appointed by Mayor Krieger and the Newport commercial associations, met the congressional committee on its down the Ohio jaunt. They were accompanied by Congressman Arthur Rouse, of the Sixth district, who is deeply interested in the project of making the Licking navigable. The congressional committee assured the Kentucky delegation that they were in favor of the improvement, and that they would make a recommendation to that effect to congress upon their return to Washington.

High School Cadets.

Gov. Willson has received a letter from the assistant secretary of war calling attention to the fact that provision has been made for the organization of high school cadet companies in the various states and urging that Kentucky organize such companies. The department is interested in having such companies formed and will furnish guns and equipment and allow for rifle practice. It is necessary that the Kentucky legislature make some provision authorizing the formation of such companies before anything can be done.

For the first time in the history of the state a notary public has resigned his position. The governor received a letter from Will A. Jonas, now living in Kansas City, resigning as a notary.

Fire at Breathitt's.

Fire which started about noon in the attic of the house occupied by Judge James Breathitt, attorney general, did considerable damage before it was extinguished. The largest loss to Judge Breathitt resulted from water, the house being flooded.

P. C. Ward tells us that he has purchased his gasoline launch which will be used to run between Walnut Log and Ledford, Ky. Ledford is the closest point to the Lake on the new railroad a distance of five miles and the launch will meet the trains and convey passengers to the lake. The slough on which the boat is to run has been cleaned out most of the way and service will begin in a short time.

SMITH & AMBERG'S Big Clearance Sale

This sale has brought satisfaction and saved money to hundreds of economical people during the past two weeks.

Two days still remain. Avail yourself of the last opportunity. No better way to make money than to invest in some of the remarkable bargains we're offering.

R. H. Speight Dead.

Robert H. Speight, age 44 years, died at his home three miles south of Hickman, Friday evening at 6 o'clock, lung trouble causing his demise. He had been confined to his bed about 30 days.

Mr. Speight was born near Newbern, Tenn., but had resided in this section for the past 25 years. His wife was a Fulton county girl—Miss Almerena Whipple—and they were married about 22 years ago. To this union was born one daughter, now 5 years old. Besides his wife and daughter, he is survived by four brothers—Harris, at Dyersburg; Alonzo, at Memphis; George, at Bells, Tenn., and Newton, at Obion.

No better fellow lived in the county than Mr. Speight. He was one of those every-day, sensible, honest, Christian gentlemen. During our six years acquaintance with him, we learned to think more of him with each passing year, and a host of friends will regret to learn that he is no longer among us.

He was a member of the Christian church and the W. O. W. lodge.

Funeral services were conducted at the home by Eld. H. Siberehl, Saturday afternoon, after which the remains were laid to rest with Woodmen honors in the Antioch burying grounds.

We have lost a good citizen and friend, and extend sympathy to his good wife and little daughter.

HON. R. T. TYLER ANSWERS FINAL SUMMONS.

From the remotest date in the history of Hickman, no death has caused more universal sorrow than the passing of Richard T. Tyler, whose life came to a peaceful end at Toronto, Canada, Sunday morning. He had been at that place for several weeks in the hope of regaining his health, which had been impaired by organic heart trouble, but the climate failed to benefit him. For three weeks past he gradually grew worse; although every possible effort was made to prolong life, his great soul departed with the dawn of the Sabbath morn. At his bedside were his wife and two daughters, who had been his constant attendants during his last illness.

The news of his death reached here Sunday morning, and was, indeed, a shock to his relatives and countless friends.

Probably no citizen of Hickman was ever more closely identified with the upbuilding of the city. He loved Hickman and her people, and when storms assailed the municipal ship, Mr. Tyler was always called to the wheel to guide her destinies. His services were cheerfully given to the aid of every worthy institution. He was liberal in charity, strong in defense of the weak, and ever sympathized with those in sorrow. His very name was a synonym for honor, honesty and manhood. Few men lived so far above above reproach or possessed in a greater measure the confidence of their fellow men.

Mr. Tyler's profession was that of law, and for many years he was one of the leading members of the Kentucky bar. He was a man of firm conviction, strict adherence to principle, and made a marked success in life's struggle.

He was born in Fulton county, near this city, Sept. 28, 1859; received the usual common school education, and later graduated from the Kentucky Military Institute, at Frankfort, in 1871. Choosing law as his profession, he returned to Hickman, and continued his studies in the office of his brother, Gen. H. A. Tyler. A few weeks after being admitted to the bar, his father met with a severe accident which necessitated Mr. Tyler's return to the farm. Shortly thereafter his father died and he was compelled to remain there several years to wind up his father's affairs. He returned to this city again in 1878 and formed a partnership with his brother, Gen. H. A. Tyler, who was then a well known practicing attorney. The firm was known as Tyler & Tyler, and for ten years thereafter this firm did the largest legal business in Western Kentucky.

In 1888 Gen. Tyler retired and the business was continued by the subject of this sketch, its volume increasing rather than diminishing. Mr. Tyler continued his law practice until September, 1901, when he ceased taking any new business in order to devote his time to his private interests. While he attempted to retire, his friends besieged him so persistently for advice and counsel that he was never able to really rid himself of all legal business.

Mr. Tyler was truly a busy business man during his active professional career, but this did not prevent him from becoming actively identified with Hickman's manufacturing, industrial and mercantile interests. He was connected with a number of firms, and for many years had large lumber interests. He was also one of the principal organizers of the Hickman Bank (now the Hickman Bank & Trust Co.) which has grown to be one of the strongest financial institutions in the state, and served the bank as president from the date of its organization until his death. He was also one of the largest realty owners in the county, and employed a large number of people in agricultural pursuits.

Mr. Tyler was active in the political welfare of his state and county. In 1896 he was elected at-large from Kentucky in the Palmer-Buckner campaign. He served one term as state senator, and his services were appreciated to the extent that his party nominated him the succeeding year for lieutenant governor. "It was the year of the hegira to Bradley by reason of discord and factional fights in the Democratic ranks," and with Hardin, he went down to defeat. In connection with other business, Mr. Tyler built up a large underwriting business in this city, which has of late been in charge of H. C. Helm. In fact, he was successful in almost every undertaking, which was undoubtedly due to his honesty and industry.

In all of his undertakings he was manly and sincere. He was one of the most sober and peaceful of men. In the storms of life he was brave and strong as an oak; in his devotion to home and sympathy for mankind, he was as gentle as a flower. He was a devout member of the Episcopal Church, and gave to God his faithful service for many years. But as it is "appointed unto man once to die," he was called from this life of toil and suffering to eternal rest. Death has conquered, the reaper has mowed, but, though fallen, he will rise again. The life of this noble man leaves a beautiful lesson and one worthy of emulation. A few short years and we too, who mourn his loss, must follow that unknown path, but let us strive to live up to the standards attained by our beloved friend.

Deceased is survived by his wife and three children, Allison M., Misses Emma and Helen. There are also three step-children, Mrs. C. B. Travis and Tom French, of this city, and Mrs. Archer Boogher, of Roanoke, Va., and one brother, Gen. Henry A. Tyler.

The remains, after being enroute for about 60 hours, reached Hickman, yesterday morning.

Brief, but impressive, funeral services were conducted at the family residence by Rev. Archer Boogher, of Virginia, and Rev. H. J. Geiger, of Hickman, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. A few verses of scripture were read from the 15th chapter of 1 Corinthians, and a favorite song rendered by members of the various choirs.

It was one of the most largely attended funerals ever seen in this section. The floral tribute was magnificent, embracing a large number of beautifully wrought designs. To convey some idea of the volume, it may be stated that on one express alone the car was fully half filled with flowers, which is a splendid testimonial of the esteem in which deceased was held.

The pallbearers were H. C. Amberg, J. H. Millet, W. C. Johnson, S. L. Dodds, W. H. Baltzer, G. N. Helm, J. T. Stephens and D. B. Wilson.

The remains were consigned to their last resting place in the City Cemetery at 5 o'clock.

We join the many friends of the bereaved ones in extending sincere sympathy.

H. E. Garth Dies.

Horace E. Garth, millionaire banker, formerly of Memphis, and later of the Mechanics National, of New York, died Monday at his summer home on Montecano, near Huntsville, Ala., after an illness of several days, aged 74 years. He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Mrs. W. F. Garth, of Huntsville, and two sisters, Mrs. Emma Stephens, of this city, and Mrs. Eliza G. Jones, of Memphis.

He was cashier and then president of the German National Bank at Memphis until 1879, when he moved to New York, then was for twenty-five years president of the Mechanics National Bank, of New York, when he retired seven years ago, his son, Granville, succeeding him.

Mr. Garth lived in Huntsville with his daughter during the last half dozen years. The funeral was held Wednesday from his old home in Memphis.

Mr. Garth was born in Trenton, Ky., on March 28, 1837. He was married in 1859 to Miss Alice D. Jones, of Memphis.

Propose Electric R. R.

It is now proposed to build an electric railway from Hickman to Paducah, touching Fulton and possibly Clinton.

Three gentlemen, who make a specialty of promoting and building these lines, are here interviewing our business men. In order to give our citizens a better conception of the matter, a mass meeting will be held at the Lyric tomorrow (Friday) night at 7:30, and all are cordially invited to attend.

The full details have been given the Courier, but it is too late for us to put the story in type for this issue.

WEATHER: Local showers today and Friday.

Accidently Shot.

Landow Kingston, who lives in one of Marlon Provow's houses in West Hickman, accidently shot himself and his 16-months old boy this morning.

The baby was in the habit of riding down to the gate with his father every morning, and this morning his father carried him to the wagon. He had a 44-calibre revolver in his hand and when he threw the weapon in the wagon, it exploded, the ball going through the calf of the boy's leg, and cutting a gash in the palm of
Mr. Kingston's hand.

Unless complications set in, the wounds are not very serious.

Mr. Kingston said the gun was thought to be one with a safety attachment.

Purchase Steamboat.

John Bryant and A. A. Faris, two local capitalists and hustling business men, went to Kansas City first of the week and purchased a steamboat known as the Mary Stewart.

She is 116 feet in length by 23 in breadth; steel hull and right up in tiptop shape.

She will be used in the grain business of the Bryant-Polhamus-Faris
Grain Co., of this city.

The new boat will be brought to Hickman about September 1st.

A big bumblebee lay helpless upon a plantain leaf under the morning glory vine—a sad example of the effects of too much intoxicating drink.
He had imbibed honey freely all the day before and now, past eight o'clock of a bright June morning, when his fellows had been at work for hours, he sprawled, half paralyzed, a shocking sight to busy people.

I took a blade of grass and tickled him gently in his yellow plush region.
He raised one leg—he was lying on his side—and waved it toward me in feeble protestation. The gesture spoke plainly. It said: "Lemme 'lone, can't yer. Jus' wanta have lit' nap."

A little nap! A little nap, indeed, on that morning when all the garden was rustling and humming and whirring and twittering with life. The robin, who was the father of a hungry family living in the apple tree, was hunting worms on the lawn; the portulacas had been open for half an hour—ever since the sun had touched them; the fat toad who lived near the yellow lilies was awake and looking about with styly twinkling eyes (he had probably been up all night, too); and the morning glories had been unfolded since daylight. The school bell rang. But I did not hear it. A school bell on such a morning?
No, I did not hear it.—The Outlook.

Resolutions of Respect.

In obedience to the will of God,
our beloved associate and counselor
has been removed from our ranks.

R. T. Tyler, universally known as "Dick," served this institution as its president for many years in the past to the day of his death, and it is fitting that we make a feeble attempt to chronicle the passing of one in whom we have always reposed our confidence, which was always guarded with zeal and fidelity.

True to his friends, firm in his convictions, Dick Tyler's virtues will stand out like the raised letters on the granite shaft, and his faults will be written in the sands at its base.

In bowing to the will of a Divine Providence and accepting the Biblical teaching "Thy Will be Done," and in extending to his bereaved ones our heartfelt sympathy, be it

RESOLVED, That a page be set aside in the minute book of this institution whereon shall be inscribed the dates of birth, association with this institution, and the date of death of the pilot who has steered our ship over the reefs into the harbor where he landed us safely, and was beckoned "Over the River" to rest with his Master.

Ricketts was thirty-seven years old

R. R. IN LIQUOR TEST CASE

Two Suits Instituted to Fix Liability of Common Carriers of Wet Goods.

Chickasha, Okla., Aug. 1.—Two test cases have been filed in the superior court of Grady county against the St. Louis & San Francisco Railroad company in the matter of storage and delivery of liquor.

The first case charges the railroad company with having, keeping and permitting others to keep whiskey in the company's freight department. The second charges the Frisco with carrying and delivering intoxicating liquors, beer and whiskey to persons of notorious names. Nineteen barrels of whiskey are now being held at the depot for J. Johnson, a fictitious character.

County Attorney Venable says he has other charges against the railroad company, but will not file them until these have been tested in the court.

Cholera Invades France.

Porignas, France, Aug. 1.—Several well defined cases of Asiatic cholera have appeared in the department of Herault, with one death. The disease has been traced to fruit imported from Italy. The health authorities do not consider the danger of the spread of the disease.

Mrs. F. M. Ryan and Miss Cleona Weatherholt, of Cloverport, Ky., arrived here Sunday, and are the guests of Mrs. J. T. Stephens. Mrs. Ryan is shipping her household furniture to her old home.

Mrs. Ike Wainke, residing several miles below Hickman, died Monday. We are unable to get further particulars.

Walker Martin, of Union City, was here Sunday.

Hickman Harness Co.

Looking Backward.

We have before us a copy of the Hickman Courier of Aug. 1, 1868. Here are some facts we gather from it:

Candidates for Sheriff: Wm. Herpin, Owen Miles, W. H. Roper and R. E. Millet.

Announcements from Washington states that troops will be withdrawn from the South.

J. Amberg was a leading dry goods merchant, having been in business here a quarter of a century.

For city marshal—Jas. P. Cheatham, W. T. Lineback, Jas. Young, Wm. L. Gardner and Pat Cunningham.

Married, Tuesday evening, July 28, Miss Lydia C. Faris and Samuel B. Parker, Rev. W. D. Weare officiating.

The Democratic ticket was headed by Horatio Seymour, for President, and Gen. Frank Blair, for Vice President.

City officers were: Mayor Saml. Landrum; City Judge J. H. Davis; Clerk J. H. Moorehead; Marshal Pat Cunningham.

The Metropolitan Gift Co. advertised to give away $250,000 in prizes, ranging from $10,000 to $25. It cost 25c to draw a ticket.

B. R. Walker and J. W. Cowgill were law partners. They gave the names of J. S. Hubbard and Joseph Amberg as references.

Market reports: Wheat, $2—peaches $2—bacon 18c—pork 8—eggs 15, coal oil 43c—corn 65c—potatoes $2—sugar 18c—salt $3—whiskey $1.90—cattle 5c, etc.

Hickman merchants were rejoicing over the fact that contract had been let to bridge Obion river at Searcy's ferry which made this point a market for that territory.

The subscription price of the Courier was $3.00 a year, and they only printed one-fourth as much as today's Courier. Advertising rates were $1 per inch; now it is 10c.

At this time there were only two American merchants in business here. They were C. A. Holcombe and Tom Buck. Hickman's population was composed principally of Germans.

County Officers—B. R. Walker, judge; H. A. Tyler, county attorney; W. H. Brevard, circuit clerk; Jno. A. Wilson county clerk; R. E. Millet sheriff; G. W. Stubblefield, jailer. Magistrates for this district were J. W. Mayes and John Boyner.

Practicing attorneys: B. R. Walker, John W. Cowgill, T. B. Logan, T. O. Goadler, C. L. Randle, H. A. Tyler, A. D. Kingman, Roulhac & Kingman, J. G. Smith, and Oscar Turner. And all these attorneys carried a card in their local paper at that time. The same cannot be said of their successors.

Local business concerns advertising in the Courier: Wolf & Plaut, dry goods; Jno. C. Hienze, saloon; Frederick Wehman, shoemaker; C. A. Holcombe, drugs; Millet & Roulhac, dry goods; N. P. Harness, wholesale hardware; S. N. White, hardware; V. A. McCutchen, grocer; Phillip Kaiser, ice cream; Kirkpatrick & Bro., carriage makers; W. R. Walker, dry goods; Samuel Landrum, insurance; Overton Steele & Co., commission merchants and transfer agents; Mrs. Nancy Dillon, City hotel; H. M. Robinson, flour mill; Casper Sohm, shoemaker; G. W. Stubblefield, provision store; H. C. Bailey, grocer; A. Plaut, Jeweler; Frank Bartoldus, furniture; Chas. Oswald, furniture; Francis Miller, notions; Hickman Courier, job printing; Wm. B. Plummer, livery stable; C. Ledwidge, grocer; Wm. B. Benny, dry goods; John Semones, saloon; John Witting, eating house; John Frenz, saloon; J. S. Hubbard, dry goods and groceries; Thos. M. Jones, painter; Geo. E. Rogers, nursery; Bondurant & Drewry, commission merchants; Hertweck, Baltzer & Co., wagons; A. S. Anderson, harness; E. Case, tailor.

B. C. Ramage, marble works; E. Margraff, barber; L. Pearson, tailor. Of all the above business concerns represented here 43 years ago, only two have survived without change of name, the Hickman Courier and the Hickman Marble Works.

Gem Opened Monday.

The Gem, Percy Jones' new play house in West Hickman, was formerly opened Monday night with a big attendance.

Judge H. F. Remley made an address of welcome, and paid several compliments to West Hickman because of her progress. In a jest the Judge said: "Some of you fellows may think I can't say anything but '$11.50,' (which more fully explained is $5 and the cost in police court), but added that he would much prefer to see the boys spend their money in innocent amusement than to spend it with the city. It was a good talk—to the point—and appreciated by the 200 persons present.

The initial bill at the Gem consisted of motion pictures and vaudeville, both of which were well worth the price of admission. Those present were agreeably surprised with the manner in which the place is fixed up—large stage, good seating capacity, elegant stage curtains, etc.

If the Gem receives the patronage it deserves, it will be a howling success. Mr. Friedman, of Paducah, will look after the management of the new institution, devoting his entire time to it, and it goes without saying that every comfort and convenience will be provided for the Gem's patrons.

Courier's Home Circle

of love.

We know that lips will curl with scorn, and society will sneer, if we reach our hand to the outcast, but God and the angels will be glad, and if a soul be thus saved, what matters it?

Flirting may seem to the giddy and thoughtless girl wonderfully amusing and she may get the idea that she is fascinating but it is a most degrading thing and she should be frowned upon by every young lady who has an ambition to become a worthy and charming young woman.

For a good, every day household angel give us the woman who laughs. Her biscuit may not always be just right, and she may occasionally burn her bread and forget to replace dislocated buttons but for solid comfort all day and every day she is a very paragon. Home is not a battle field, nor life one long unending row.

Our habits are formed under the moulding power of home. The "tender twig" is there bent, the spirit shaped, principles implanted and the whole character is formed until it becomes a habit. The gray haired father who walks in the second infancy, feels the traces of his childhood home in his spirit, desires and habits.

Of one thing we are certain, we are too chary of our commendations, too stingy of our praise, and alas! too lavish of our blame. "Thoughts are things," and words, if true, are their manifestations. How often have we thought favorably of many things, yet said no word. For all such sins of commission we must ever suffer deep regret. How easy it would have been to have said, "That is so beautiful!" or "how well you do!"

Don't think because you are fresh from the hands of your tailor and your barber, that you will pass for a gentleman, unless you are one. You might carry the perfumed roses about you for ages without once being mistaken for a rose.

Let it be the aim of every young man, every business man, above all things else, to keep his purity sustained. This is the best possession—this is a capital which can never be taken from—this is the richest inheritance which he can leave to his children.

Sarcasm and nagging are to the atmosphere of love what sand-flies and fleas are to summer weather. Who would not prefer an occasional brush with a roaring June bug, to the eternal torment of a flea you can't catch?

We think home love is the best. The love that you are born to is the sweetest that you will ever have on earth. You, who are anxious to escape from the home nest, pause a moment and remember that this is so. It is right that the hour should come when you in your time should become a wife and mother and give the best love to others, but that will be just it. Nobody, not a lover, not a husband, will ever be so tender or so true as your father or mother. Never again after strangers have broken the beautiful bond, will there be anything so sweet as the little home circle of mother, father and children, where you were cherished, praised, protected and kept from harm.

Now we want to say something to husbands. These dear aggravating indispensable creatures, that there is hardly any living with or without. If your wife or daughter has been bending over the hot stove and a sewing machine all day, she needs to ride out in a vehicle or horseback. Don't think we are a fit subject for a lunatic asylum if we tell you to stop a horse out of "the crap" and take her or let her go by herself if she is not afraid. There is no more sense in intemperate work than intemperate rest. You may have to stop longer to pay the bill. You will be sorry some day when those tired hands hold white flowers under a pall that you did not look more after her health and comfort.

When you yawn a good deal in the daytime, feel dull, achey and want to stretch frequently it is an unmistakable symptom of malaria, and unless you do something at once you are booked for a spell of chills. HERBINE is a chill medicine that will prevent or cure the disease. It drives out the impurities on which the malarial germ thrives, strengthens, the liver and cleanses the bowels. Price 50c. Three Houses Burn.

A disastrous fire occurred here Saturday morning about 2 o'clock, which resulted in the total destruction of three dwelling houses owned by M. B. Shaw and located just west of the foot of the court house steps. Two of them were two story, 5-room structures and the other was one story, 4 rooms.

The blaze was discovered by Mrs. Brooks, wife of S. A. Brooks, who occupied the middle house, and before the alarm could be given the fire had gained much headway. It is thought the fire started from an ash barrel at the rear of the Brooks home; at any rate it caught from the outside. Several roomers on the second floor of the house barely had time to escape.

None of the houses were over ten feet apart, and the other two soon caught. Local fire-fighters did good work but could not save either of the three, and realizing their efforts in that direction were futile, turned their attention to the homes of H. C. Barrett and T. A. Ledford which were in considerable danger.

The three houses burned were occupied by S. A. Brooks, Ben Nearing and a Mr. Pendleton. The former lost most of his household goods, while the other two succeeded in saving the major portion. However, what goods were taken from the burning buildings were badly damaged by mud and water as a hard rain started a few minutes after the fire broke out and continued throughout the day. None of the occupants of these houses carried insurance. In the aggregate, their losses amount to $600 or $800.

Mr. Shaw carried $1900 insurance on the buildings, and will lose in the neighborhood of $1200.

CHILD'S DRESS.

The yoke dress is as popular as ever for little girls, for every one in fact. We illustrate a model which has a small round yoke below which the material of the dress is gathered in both front and back. The sleeve is cut in one with the body in peasant effect, producing quite a novel garment. The sleeves are held by the cuff at the wrist in bishop fashion. A belt of the dress material or of leather holds in the skirt portion. All wash materials, cashmere, cheviot, checks and plaids may be used to make this little frock.

The pattern (5211) is cut in sizes 2 to 10 years. Medium size requires 3 1/4 yards of 27 inch material.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department," of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

The Indian Chief Tammany.
The aborigines, whatever may be said against them, enjoyed natural beauty, and their habitations were often made in this delightful region, their council being attended by Chief Tammany, or Tammany, a Delaware, whose wisdom and virtues were such as to raise him to the place of patron saint of America. The notorious Tammany society of New York is named for him. When this chief became old and feeble his tribe abandoned him in a hut at New Britain, Pa., and there he tried to kill himself by stabbing, but falling in that, he flung burning leaves over himself, and so perished. He was buried where he died.—From Myths and Legends of Our Own Land.

The Courier's Weekly Sermon
By PASTOR RUSSELL
SUBJECT:

WHERE ARE THE DEAD? A REMARKABLE ADDRESS.

Convincing to Many in His Great Audience.

Pastor Russell at Chautauqua.

Galesburg, Ill., July 30.—Pastor Russell of Brooklyn, and now also of London, delivered addresses to large audiences at the Galesburg Chautauqua today. His topics were, "Where are the Dead?" and "The Judgment of the Great White Throne." We report the former. Each address lasted for nearly two hours, but so deeply interested were the audiences that they seemed not to note the flight of time. He said:

No other question could be of deeper interest to thinking people than the one now before us—"Where are the dead?" Our ancestors, our neighbors, our friends, are dead or dying, and ourselves with them. What will be our condition when the spark of life flickers out?

The Bible confirms the ablest findings of science when it tells us that the dead are dead and not alive at all, anywhere. The Scriptures declare, "The dead know not anything;" "their sons come to honor and they know it not; they come to dishonor but they perceive it not of them." Again the Bible says: "There is neither wisdom nor device nor knowledge in the grave [sheol, the Bible hell] whither thou goest" (Ecclesiastes ix, 10).

Where, my dear friends, is the key to the problem? The Bible hell is the grave, sheol, hades, the death state. The salvation which God has provided is the salvation from sin and from death. The hope set before us in the Gospel is—the resurrection of the dead. If nobody is dead there can be no resurrection of the dead. It is not the body which dies that God has promised shall be resurrected, but the soul. It was not Adam's body merely that was punished with death, but it was his soul, which included the body.

God's provision for the salvation of mankind is that "As by man came death [not eternal torment], by a man [the man Christ Jesus] comes also the resurrection of the dead."

The Redemption Price Given.

Not only do the Scriptures clearly set forth that the wages of sin is death and that thus death passed upon the entire human race [Romans v, 12] but they also set forth that the redemption price which Jesus gave was death. "He poured out His soul unto death;" He made His soul an offering for sin (Isaiah liii, 10, 12).

As a result, "In due time," there will come a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and of the unjust. By the

STEVE STAHR
BOTH PHONES

Just is meant those justified and brought into harmony with God through faith in Christ. By the unjust is meant all others. Thus the Church will share in the First Resurrection with Christ; these are the Elect of the Scriptures. Their resurrection and complete change of nature have already begun in them through the begetting of the Holy Spirit.

They will be like Christ, who is the express image of the Father's person. Like God and the angels they, as spirit beings, will be invisible to mankind. These with their Lord and Head will set up the Kingdom of God—the Messianic Kingdom. "They will reign with Christ a thousand years." These are the saintly ones, a class recognized by Catholics and Protestants, by Luther, Calvin and Wesley. All are agreed respecting such a class. The entire point of discrimination is respecting the masses of our race for whom Christ died and for all of whom the various creeds provide torments untellable, unthinkable.

Do not the Scriptures repeatedly tell you that the dead fall asleep? St. Paul writes of those who fall asleep in Christ; and again, of those who "sleep in Jesus;" and again that all would sleep except those saints who would be changed in a moment, at the second coming of Messiah. Did not Jesus say, "Our friend Lazarus sleepeth?" Where do they sleep, and for how long? The Bible answers, "They that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake" (Daniel xiii, 2). The Bible tells us that the weeping, sighing and dying of this present dark night will give place to a glorious morning of better things, the resurrection morning—the morning of the Messianic reign of glory for the blessing of all mankind.

Not Universalism but Universal Opportunity.

Pastor Russell disclaims Universalism. He finds the Bible to teach a universal opportunity for salvation and everlasting life, but that the gift of God, eternal life, will be given only to those who will avail themselves of the opportunity. Upon all others will come the wages of sin, eternal death.

The Redeemer taught us to pray, "Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is done in heaven." That glorious time will come when, as the Prophet declares, every knee shall bow and every tongue confess Messiah; and the knowledge of the Lord shall fill the whole earth.

Fine Bottom Farm of 156 Acres
Well Improved, Already Stocked
For Only $35 an Acre....

Owner has other business opportunities and will sell this place at much less than it is worth. It can be had with buildings, stock, farming implements and poultry already on it.

Two residences on place, in only moderate repair, but two good barns, one 36 and the other 32 feet, with sheds on sides. Nice young bearing orchard, 50 bushels apples, plenty of plums, etc. 100 acres of the place in cultivation; produces 60 bushels corn, a bale of cotton per acre, also alfalfa, oats, wheat, potatoes and all other crops of this section. A fine stock farm, now stocked with registered hogs of three kinds, live stock and about 200 chickens, guineas, etc., which may be bought with place. All under good American wire fence, but outside is a range of 5,000 acres for stock. Three good wells and pumps on farm.

Land is next to river, but is being added to yearly by river deposits. No better soil under the sun. Place will stand any kind of investigation you may care to make.

This is an extremely low price, as low as any unimproved land, but absolutely nothing wrong with the farm or its title. Makes a good crop every year. If you want either a Fulton county farm or a good investment, it will pay you to buy this place.
